Dear Mrs. Ronald (Nancy) Reagan,

I would like to commend you for your work on preventing drug abuse and, at the same time, bring to your attention the fact that the CIA is involved in bringing drugs into this country illegally.

Although the CIA-DCI's publicly deny their role in trans-shipping illegal drugs to this country they admit to being involved in the illegal drug trade for "National Security" reasons. The CIA has a special department for employee's that can no longer function due to drug or alcohol dependency. The CIA has its own facilities for treating drug and alcohol dependent employees who have become addicted "in the line of duty". The CIA refuses to prosecute CIA employee drug pushers for fear that it will expose the CIA drug dealers that operate "in the national interest".

The CIA controls that section of the IRS that deals in drug money laundering and, the IRS shows complicity with these money institutions that launder drug money by ignoring the illegality of the source of the money---as long as the money is reported and the tax collected the IRS looks the other way when the CIA profits from drugs.

The CIA operates at the will of the President, but at the same time keeps the President uninformed as to the details of its operation. You and your husband are more than welcome to visit my wife and I (our farm has a large wood pile) but, I realize you have severe time constraints and so I have documented my statements in this letter to Senator Specter and his staff---should you need additional information I am sure the Senator will share my letters with you.
